Detailed Office Action

The restriction requirement set forth on 04/08/2002 has been withdrawn in view of the newly added claims 26-27. However, a new restriction requirement is required as followed:

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, 10-16, 20-25, drawn to detecting semiconductor defect and transporting the semiconductor between processing stations, classified in class 356, subclass 237.5.
- II. Claims 4-7, 17-19, drawn to adjusting the operation of the semiconductor fabrication line, classified in class 324, subclass 758.
- III. Claims 8-9, drawn to statistically recording defects, classified in class 356, subclass 237.5.

Claims 26 links inventions group I and II. The restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 26. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Claim 27 links inventions group I and III. The restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 27. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions group I and group II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention group I and II has separate utility such as detecting defect in a semiconductor device; and adjusting semiconductor processing station to correct defects on semiconductor devices. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions group I and III, and group II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination of group I and II as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because detecting defect condition of a semiconductors of group I and II does not require a particular method of observing the distribution of the defects and performing the detection in real time of group III. The subcombination has separate utility such as recording defects statistically.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Response to Arguments

The traversal is on the ground that it would not create burden for the examiner. This is not found persuasive because claims in group I drawn to detecting the foreign particle on the wafer since detecting the foreign particles on the wafer does not relate to adjusting the operation of the semiconductor in group II or statistically recording defects as in group III. Searching all group impose serious burden to the examiner. Since the cited references have been disqualified as a prior art, a new search must be conducted. Searching all the invention group I, II, III is a serious burden.
